EVENTS

After a successful Apollo 7 mission with three astronauts aboard, the United States followed in December with Apollo 8. This time a 3-man team made history by leaving Earth's orbit and entering orbit around the moon.

This diagram shows the path of the Apollo 8 in successfully achieving lunar orbit and then returning to Earth.

Senator Edward Kennedy of Massachusetts eulogizes his slain brother during funeral service for Senator Robert F. Kennedy in St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York. President and Mrs. Johnson listen at lower right.

Tom Northrup hits a triple off Bob Gibson in the 7th inning of the final game of the World Series at Busch Stadium in St. Louis. Two runs were driven in and the Detroit Tigers went on to beat the St. Louis Cardinals.

Student sit-ins got their share of publicity in 1968 — photo shows Columbia University students during a demonstration in April.

This aerial view shows supporters of the Poor People's Campaign ringing the reflecting pool and wading into its waters as they gathered in June at the Lincoln Memorial. At right is Resurrection City.

DEDICATION

We, the Senior Class of 1969, dedicate this annual to Williams High School. We are the fifty-second graduating class and probably the last.

Williams School is noted for being the largest frame school building in the United States. It has been a center for community activity.

Our thanks to Williams School for the guidance and education. We will always remember our years in Williams and the memories which were made here.

FEATURES

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

Larry Lundsten wills David Albrecht forty of his pounds and hopes that it will broaden his shoulders.

Connie Fogodzinski wills her ability to get married to Karen Berggren in hopes that she will live happily ever after.

Suzanne Grove wills her great height to Julie Bridges so she will not get an inferiority complex

Kathy Meikle wills Connie Bueglar her ability to help run the library smoothly in hopes she will improve it.

Steve Spina wills Desta Carlson his week-end activities (after 12:00) in hopes she won't turn out to be an old maid.

Lyle Nelson wills Vernon Danker his muscles and the ambition to lift weights to keep himself in shape.

Steve Spina wills David Jewell his leatherback, hard bound edition of "The Facts of Life" (simplified) in hopes he'll find good use for it.

Fern Schuh wills her boy friend's identical twin brother to Bev Johnson; she hopes that his wife and her boy friend don't mind too much.

Joan Ubel wills her ability to talk, to Kurt Knutson in hopes that he will use it on the girls.

Geraldine Nelson wills Terry Laffin her blonde hair; cause blondes have more fun.

Sue Olson wills Peggy Lund her quiet manner in hopes that she will pass it along to someone else.

Jim Harthun bequeathes his cowboy boots to Linda McGuire because "those boots were made for walking" and somebody's got to make noise around here.

Bonnie Stierlen wills Elmerna Meikle her ability to get engaged in her Junior year.

Don Johnson wills Brenda Meikle his "well cared for" B. F. Goodrich tennis shoes for no special reason; he just wants to get rid of them.

Robert Crompton bequeathes his personality to Marlene Nelson in hopes that he might find a new one.

Jim Harthun bequeathes Clare Olson a ten carat diamond in hopes that his bachelor days are over.

I, Suzanne Grove, bequeath my long hair to Jerry Peterson so he won't have to let his grow any longer.

Sue Pederson wills Sherri Phillips the ability to keep from messing with her hair.

Elaine Tveit wills her great library of "True Stories" to Carla Sorrels in hopes that she will receive an education!

Upon leaving the immortal Williams High, Mark Hall does hereby bequeath Gale Stierlen his teacher's key to "The New American Speech."

Last Will and Testament

I, Joan Ubel, will my very unmanageble dark brown hair to Theresa Sutherland to prove to her that "Brunettes" can have just as much fun as "Blondes."

I, Steve Arneson the 1st, being of sound mind and health do hereby bequeath my band and choir music to Ron Tyjet in hopes he will keep up my diligent work.

Class Prophecy

Steve Arnesen took an anonymous girl in his launch, the H...S. Rottenbottom, and has not been seen for 15 years.

Robert Crompton is now starring as Paul Bunyan in the new 20th Century Fox release, "Paul Bunyan Swings!!"

Suzanne Grove is now devoting her life to psychiatric work at the Roosevelt General Rehabilitation for Former Williams High School Teachers Center.

Mark Hall, who was voted the most likely to succeed, is now serving a 20 year sentence at the Roseau County Law Enforcement Center for bootlegging hard cider.

James Harthun just won the Kentucky Derby on his famed horse, Turkey-Neck. He won the 1988 running in 1989.

The Municipal Corner Drugstore is the only business establishment left in Williams, thanks to the marvelous management of Mr. Donald Johnson.

Lawrence Landsten, after an excellent performance as Captain Ramsey in "Hip Hippie Hooray", was inspired to take up law enforcement. His most recent arrest was Mark Hall for bootlegging.

Kathy Neikle is now happily married and the proprietor of the newest beauty parlor for norses. She is currently suffering from a broken foot after being stepped on by one of her customers.

Geraldine Nelson is coaching the basketball team at the U of M, Williams branch. Two of her recent pupils were J. Watson and H. Anderson, who came back for refresher courses.

After achieving his highest goal in life, becoming King of Muscle Beach, Lyle Nelson has retired. For his own enjoyment, Lyle is a referee for women's wrestling matches.

Susan Olson has been busy taking refresher courses so she can referee the family basketball games.

Susan Pederson has become an Army nurse and gets a big thrill out of checking the servicemen's pulses.

Connie Pogodzinski, after finishing high school, has gone on to college majoring in husbandry.

Fern Schuh, after taking many courses in backseat driving, feels she is competent to teach Driver's Training to weekend space visitors.

Steve Spina finally hit it big by beating Hugh Hefner in a game of Monopoly. After losing everything to the taxman, life doesn't have much to offer; but all's not so bad—he kept the bunnies.

Elaine Tveit, after attending the Estelle Compton School of Charm and receiving a degree in romance psychology, has returned to Williams to solve the faculty's love problems.

Bonnie Stierlen, now Pvt. Stierlen, is assisting commander Goldschmidt in Greenland. They are deep in a project of studying the reproductive cycle of sea gulls.

Joan Ubel has received the Grand Champion ribbon at the Williams Annual Milking Contest. First prize was a nanny goat.

History

Out of the twenty-three students that started school in 1958, only thirteen have remained to graduate at Williams High. They are Steven Arnesen, Robert Crompton, Mark Hall, James Harthun, Donald Johnson, Lawrence Lundsten, Geraldine Nelson, Lyle Nelson, Susan Olson, Fern Schuh, Steven Spina, Elaine Tveit, and Joan Ubel. They were joined by Kathy Meikle and Bonnie Stierlen in the third grade, by Susan Pederson and Suzanne Grove in the ninth grade, and by Connie Pogodzinski in the twelfth grade. These eighteen make up the graduating class of 1969.

Members of the class have participated in many of the school activities: basketball, baseball, hockey, chorus, band, cheerleading, newspaper, GARA, FHA, and other extra-curricular activities.

During their high school years they undertook many successful projects. They received first prize on their floats in the eighth, ninth, and eleventh grades. They have sponsored the canteen, Snow Carnival booths, dances, and skating parties. They have also given two successful plays in their Junior and Senior years: "Arizona Dude Ranch" in the junior year and "Hip Hippie Hooray" in the senior year. "Blue Hawaii" was the theme of their Junior-Senior prom.

On May 13, 1969, these eighteen Seniors will have reached a goal in their lives—graduation. Then it is onward to even greater goals.

The background of the entire page is a black and white optical illusion pattern. It consists of numerous thin, wavy lines that curve and ripple across the surface, creating a sense of movement and depth. The lines are more densely packed in some areas and more spread out in others, which enhances the illusion.

Acknowledgment

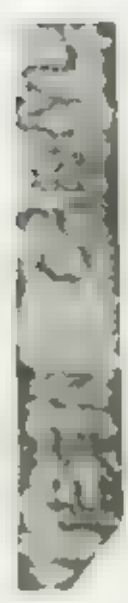

We are grateful to Mr. Gustafson for his help and guidance.

Thank you for helping us make our small school better.

WILLIAMS POTATO DAY

This year's Williams Potato Day, 1968, featured Susan Olson and Desta Carlson as the Williams Potato Day Queen entrants. Warroad entered Patricia Reinhart and Rebecca Landby and Baudette entered Brenda Slick and Linda Huldebrandt. Brenda Slick was coronated Queen, and in the words of our superintendent, "a good time was had by all!"

And they all came marching home!

AN EXTENDED THANKS

We, the Senior Class of 1969, would like to extend our gratitude and appreciation to a man who has given us inspiration and guidance throughout the past year. He has specially taken the time to express personal opinion, and instruct us with the best of his ability. Each of us can recall instances of his witty sense of humor and charming personality, that will be cherished forever, along with all other collected memories.

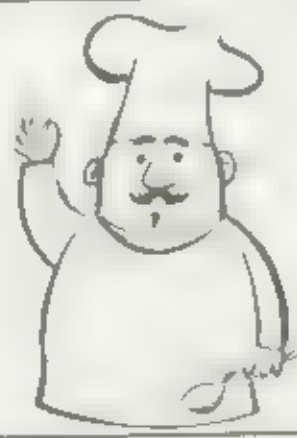

And so here's to you, Mr. James A. Watson, for the lasting impression shared by all of us. KEEP THE FAITH BABY!

1. Martha Vasconcellos, representing Brazil, was crowned Miss Universe 1968 at the Miss Universe Beauty Pageant in Miami Beach, Florida.
2. Pope Paul VI shakes hands with Dr. Christiaan Barnard during a private audience at the Vatican. The pontiff congratulated the surgeon on his work in heart transplant operations.
3. Jacqueline Onassis and her husband, Greek shipping magnate Aristotle Onassis, leave chapel on the Greek Island of Scorpios after their marriage October 20th.
4. In May the Paris Peace Talks began in an effort to stop the Vietnam conflict. French Presidency Protocol Chief Bernard Durand indicates seats for the North Vietnamese representatives and for the U.S. representatives, headed by Averell Harriman, second from right.
5. A defiant Czech youth waves a national flag under the gun barrel of a Soviet tank in Prague. This Soviet-led invasion of Czechoslovakia occurred in August.
6. U.S. Marines man the high ground watching for snipers as giant Chinook helicopters descend onto a landing zone about 27 miles southwest of Da Nang, South Vietnam.

AL EVENTS

7. Mexican girl athlete Enriqueta Basilio races up the stairs of Olympic stadium in Mexico City with the Olympic flame to climax the opening ceremony.

8. The U.S. was not the only nation to feel the effects of rebellious youth. Here a crowd of students jam the Via Del Tritone in Rome demanding educational reforms.

9. Hardly a wall was left standing after this Iranian town of 14,363 people was struck by an earthquake on August 28th. The death toll throughout Eastern Iran was estimated at more than 11,000.

10. A Parisian reads a newspaper headlining the monetary crisis in France. French President Charles de Gaulle later announced there would be no devaluation of the franc.

11. Commander Lloyd M. Bucher, skipper of the captured U.S. intelligence ship, Pueblo, is shown as depicted in news film from North Korea. Officers and crew were released in December.
